

BUCKINGHAM PALACE

1st February, 2016.

Dear Mrs. Butterfield,

I have been asked to thank you for your letter of 20th January to The Royal Archives, in which you ask if it would be possible to arrange replacement copies of messages sent from The Queen to the Church Lads' and Church Girls' Brigade in 1991 and 2012.

Unfortunately we have no record of Her Majesty's message from 1991 at Buckingham Palace and it will therefore not be possible to arrange a replacement. However, I have pleasure in enclosing a copy of the message sent to the Brigade in 2012, together with your photocopy of the 1991 message.

Yours sincerely,

Christopher Sandamas
Chief Clerk to The Queen

Mrs. Elizabeth Butterfield.

BUCKINGHAM PALACE

Mrs Pamela Corbishley,
Governor,
The Church Lads' and Church Girls' Brigade.

I send my grateful thanks to the Brigade Council, Officers, Members and helpers of The Church Lads' and Church Girls' Brigade for their kind message of loyal greetings, sent on the occasion of the Sixtieth Anniversary of my Accession to the Throne.

In return, please accept my good wishes for a most memorable and enjoyable Diamond Jubilee year.

ELIZABETH R.

2nd April, 2012.

BUCKINGHAM PALACE

Major General
Sir Desmond Langley, KCVO, MBE.
Governor,
The Church Lads' and Church Girls' Brigade.

As Patron, I have much pleasure in sending my congratulations to the Church Lads' and Church Girls' Brigade on the Centenary of its original foundation. In adapting over the years to changing times, the Brigade has never failed to further its invaluable work of bringing together the Church, the family, and the community.

As you step out towards the next Century, my thoughts and prayers go with you all.

ELIZABETH R.

1st February, 1991.