

Church Lads' & Church Girls' Brigade Ulster Regiment – Going Places!

November/December 2015

Nearly £4000 Raised in Sponsorship

We congratulate Olivia McKillop, a leader in the St Saviour's, Dobbin, Company (Armagh Diocese), for raising this substantial amount of money for Hamlin Fistula, a charity that supports women in Ethiopia who have suffered birth injuries. Olivia is getting ready to take part in a 10km sponsored run in Ethiopia on 22nd November and we wish her well. Olivia is pictured, left, with Ulster Regiment C.O., Melvyn Lockhart, and below, with the Dobbin girls after she told them all about her trip. Please keep Olivia in your prayers as she makes her final preparations for her journey and run.

Remembrance

The Brigade was represented at the Festival of Remembrance held at Craigavon Civic Centre on Thursday 5th November 2015. Members of the CLCGB are pictured with the Lord Mayor of Armagh, Banbridge and Craigavon Borough Council, Councillor Darren Causby. The Brigade's new Great War Memorial Banner was on display. It is important that we remember those who gave their lives for freedom.

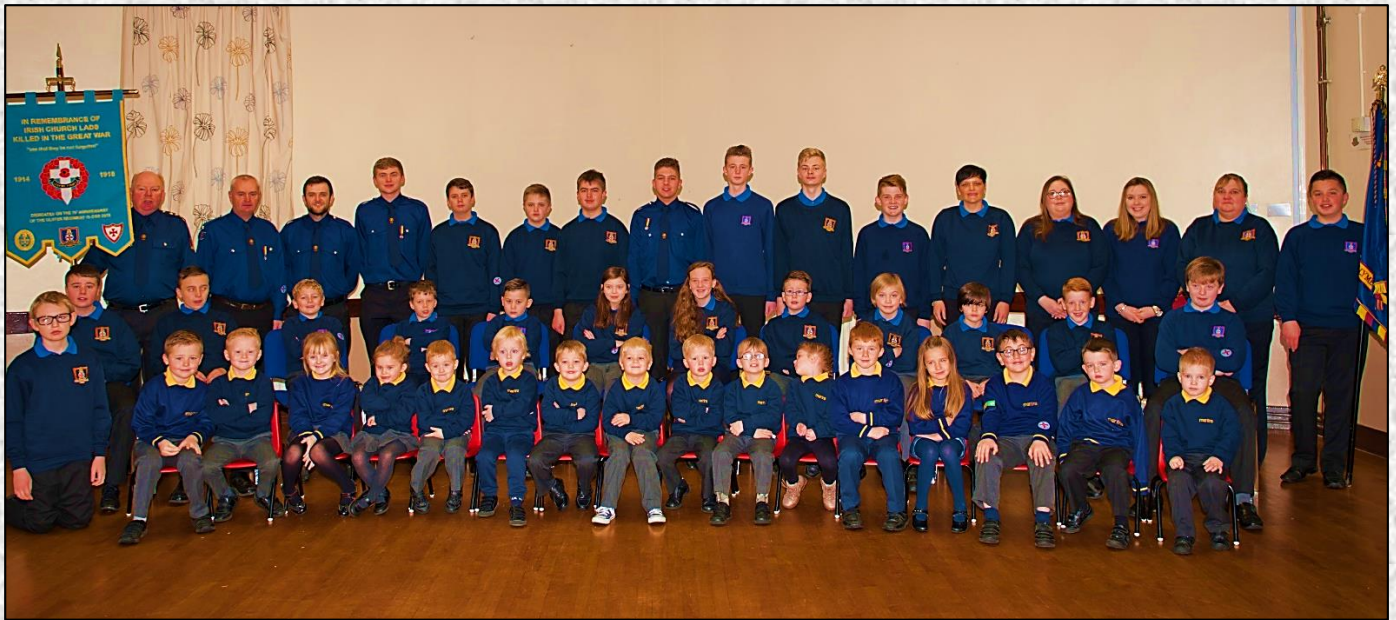

Focus on Seagoe Parish – Diocese of Down and Dromore

Seagoe Parish CLCGB have been very busy lately with lots of interesting activities. The Choir sang at the Festival of Remembrance at Craigavon Civic Centre. The Girls had a visit from the Mid-Ulster Bee Keepers and collected items for the Craigavon Food Bank. The Lads, below, had a great time at Shannaghmore Outdoor Education Centre where they spent a weekend having fun in and out of the water.
