

Taking Groups Away - Pre-Training Experience.

The TGA course is a classroom based introduction to Taking Groups Away within the Brigade. The limited timescales available mean that we need you to have done some preparatory work prior to your attending. Please take some time to consider the following and bring the information with you.

Name: _____ Company: _____

Course being undertaken :*

TGA Sleepover / TGA1 (in Accommodation) / TGA2 (under Canvass) / TGA-E (Expedition)

In the last 2 years I have attended the following Camp's or Holidays

My Role at each event was:

I was responsible on camp for the following:

I will be attending the following camp this year where I will be available to undertake my assessment:

_____ Dates: _____

Now please give some details on the reverse about the following:

1. Prepare a written statement about your relevant experience up to now. Include any camps you have attended or helped to organise, including Expeditions, weekends away and major camps / holiday events. This will be used to assist the tutor to organise your practical assessment at the end of the course.
2. What do you think are the main purposes and aims of Brigade Holidays or camps?
